The Mark of a Champion

Passion

On Thursday 13 December, 2007, the AFL Players' Association will host the inaugural Madden Medal presentation, paying tribute to the achievements of AFL players that have ended their careers in season 2007.

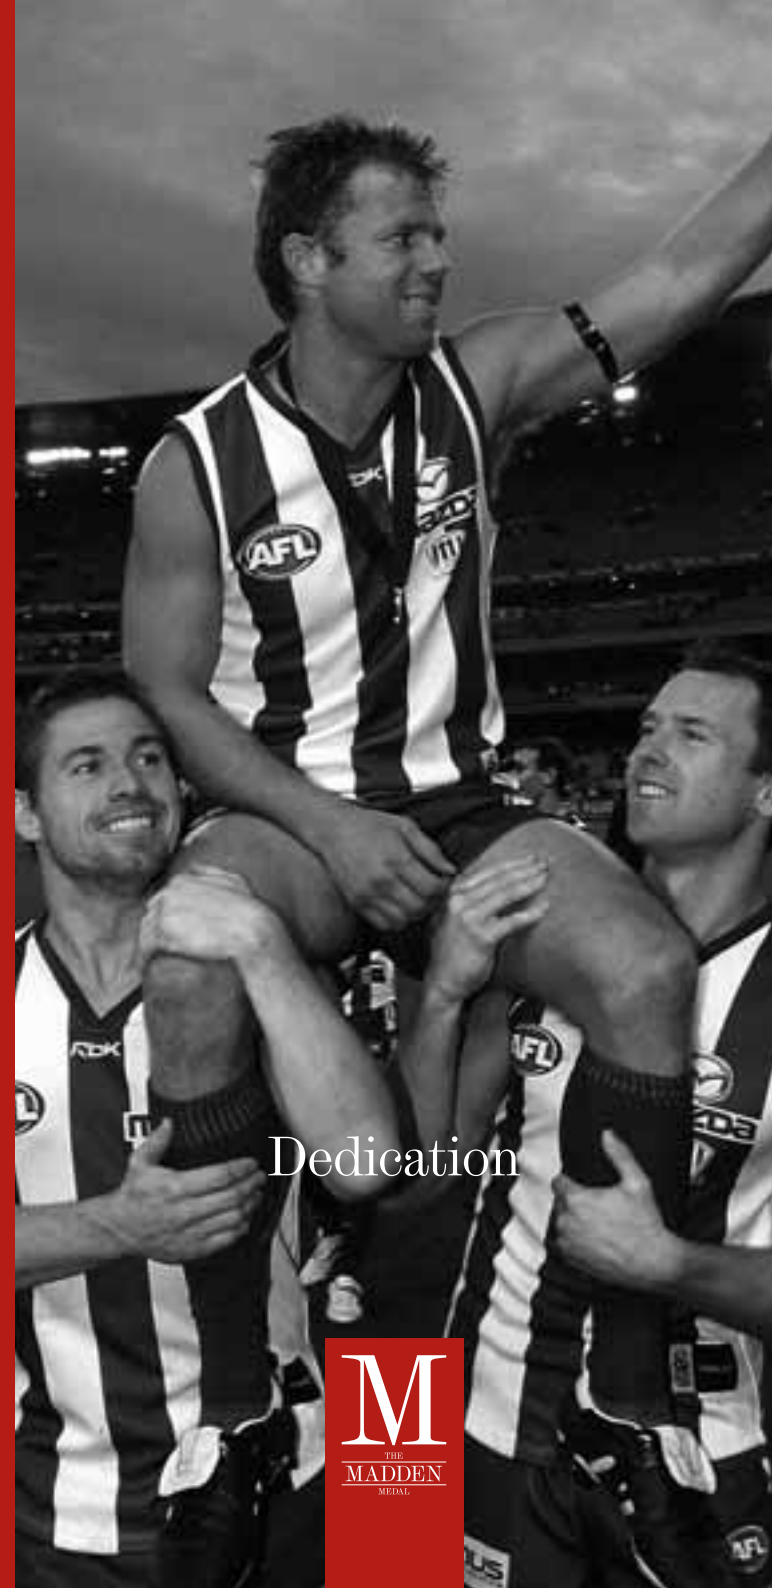

The following awards will be presented on the day to players departing our great game this year; the Football Achievement Award, the Personal Development Award and the Community Spirit Award. Fittingly, the player who has demonstrated excellence in all three of these categories, and who has achieved the true mark of a champion, will be the recipient of the Madden Medal.

Named in honour of the contributions of two former premiership players and AFLPA presidents, Simon and Justin Madden, this will be the ultimate prize and celebration for those who have left an indelible mark on our great game.

Come join us in paying tribute to retiring greats, Glenn Archer, James Hird, Mark Ricciuto, Luke Darcy, Anthony Koutoufides and many more favourite players who have hung up their boots at the conclusion of the 2007 AFL season.

Reserve your table quickly to entertain clients and staff at this historic event. The presentation of the inaugural Madden Medal will be an unforgettable experience.
